AGREEMENT FORM

The student, and the parent/legal guardian of the student, in consideration of the sponsorship of The Health Museum the consideration paid by us for, and the right to participate in, the event or program described as the GLOBAL TEEN MEDICAL SUMMIT, does hereby agree to the following relating to The Health Museum.

First, that the student, as a participant in the program, pledges to conduct himself/herself in a manner that reflects favorably upon all concerned. Students are bound to the conduct guidelines stipulated in the Rules and Regulations form for the program. Staff of The Health Museum may discipline a student or refer a student to the Director of Education for dismissal from the program for behavior detrimental to the program or not in keeping with the program guidelines provided to parents and students. Should a student be dismissed for disciplinary reasons, no fees will be returned to the parent or student. Further, if a student is dismissed for academic reasons resulting from the student's lack of effort or attitude toward the academic environment, no fees will be returned to student or parents.

We further agree that The Health Museum reserves the right to make cancellations, changes, and substitutions in case of emergency or changed conditions, or if such are in the best interests of the group affected. Should The Health Museum cancel a program, full refunds of the program fees will be made unless the cancellation is due to causes outside of the control of The Health Museum, in which case The Health Museum will refund only uncommitted and recoverable funds. In addition, it should be agreed that the cost of travel to and from the program is not included in any fees that may be refunded.

It is also agreed that should a student leave the program for any reason other than a death in the immediate family or an illness which requires hospitalization after the fee deadline set by The Health Museum (See Application) has passed there will be no refund of any fees. Should a student leave a program as the result of death in the immediate family or an illness that requires hospitalization, The Health Museum will refund only uncommitted and recoverable funds, which will be prorated before return.

The above-named student, and the parent/legal guardian of the above-named student who is under 18, as a participant in the GLOBAL TEEN MEDICAL SUMMIT, does hereby acknowledge, agree, promise and covenant with The Health Museum and their trustees, officers, employees, agents and all other persons or entities, and do hereby release, hold harmless and discharge The Health Museum and their trustees, officers, employees, agents and all other persons or entities involved in the program from any and all liability for any injury, death, illness, disease and damage to my person or damage to my property which I might sustain while participating in the GLOBAL TEEN MEDICAL SUMMIT, including but not limited to residential living and travel incidental to the program, and I execute this release on behalf of and with the specific intent to legally bind myself, my heirs, assigns, personal representative and estate.

I hereby certify that I have no medical conditions that will prevent my normal participation in the subject event or program. I further understand and acknowledge that no medical insurance benefits will be

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

- Parent and Student understand that The Health Museum requires the highest standards of behavior.
- Student agrees to conduct himself/herself in a manner that will contribute to a sense of community and an atmosphere of mutual respect among all students and program staff.
- Student agrees that he/she will not use tobacco, alcohol or nonprescription controlled substances during the conference or stay for the program.
- Student agrees that he/she will not bring or use any weapons or items that might reasonably be used or viewed as weapons, including, without limitation, guns, knives and other sharp instruments, and that he/she will not engage in any threatening behavior or physical altercations with any person during the course of a program.
- Student agrees that he/she will make no degrading remarks or gestures regarding race, religion, sexual orientation, cultural traits or any physical or psychological attributes of a person.
- Student agrees that he/she will comply with the Summit dress code. Comfortable clothes and closed-toed shoes are required. The following dress is not allowed: cut-off shorts or short shorts, tank tops, spaghetti straps, or strapless tops, ripped jeans or pants worn below the hips (sagged), T-shirts with offensive language or symbols, and open-toed shoes.
- Student agrees to (1) follow the instructions of the program staff at all times; (2) participate in all program activities; (3) refrain from leaving the program group at any time during the conference; (4) abide by all program curfew rules; and (5) abide by all other rules of the program, including any additional conduct rules or requirements set forth in the program materials.
- Parent and Student understand and acknowledge that if, in the sole discretion of the conference staff, Student's conduct, actions or general behavior is deemed an infraction of this Student Code of Conduct and/or any other conduct requirements reasonably known to Student, impedes the operation or acts as a disruption of the program or interferes with the rights or welfare of any person, such conduct, actions or general behavior may result in Student's immediate dismissal from the program, denial of Student's Certificate of Completion and Student's return home from the program at Parent's sole expense and forfeiture of all program tuition paid.
- Dismissed students are not permitted to remain with the program, and parents are responsible for any expenses incurred by the student for housing or transportation after dismissal.

ACCEPTANCE OF MEDICATION POLICY

Parents and students are asked to read the following statement carefully and sign to signify your understanding of the medication policies for both prescription and non-prescription drugs. Your signatures further indicate that you and your child agree to abide by The Health Museum's policies regarding medication.

I understand that The Health Museum nor its staff can in any way assume responsibility for dispensing my child's medication to her/him, nor can The Health Museum or its staff assure that my child has taken her/his medication. I further understand that it is my child's responsibility to self-medicate. I also understand that within a policy of limited confidentiality, some staff members may have access to my child's medication information; however, I also understand that this access is needed for administrative purposes and not for the monitoring of student medication issues by The Health Museum staff. If you as a parent or legal guardian do not believe that your child can assume full responsibility for her/his medication needs, then the Global Teen Medical Summit may not be appropriate for your child. Your signature and that of your child below will indicate that you and your child agree to comply with The Health Museum's policy on medication.
